HigherEdJobs.com, NASPA, and ACUHO-I Partnership Helps Student Affairs Professionals at The Placement Exchange

STATE COLLEGE, PA (March 3, 2009) – HigherEdJobs.com has partnered with NASPA – Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education and the Association of College & University Housing Officers – International (ACUHO-I) to help student affairs professionals find their next job in higher education at The Placement Exchange.

The Placement Exchange is a joint venture between NASPA and ACUHO-I as well as the National Association for Campus Activities (NACA), the Association for Student Judicial Affairs (ASJA), and National Orientation Directors Association (NODA).

Through the partnership with HigherEdJobs.com, The Placement Exchange will benefit from exposure to student affairs job seekers on HigherEdJobs.com. And HigherEdJobs.com will benefit by receiving targeted career information from The Placement Exchange on finding and obtaining a job in student affairs.

“We are incredibly proud of the role The Placement Exchange plays in delivering job placement opportunities for our members,” said Sallie Traxler, executive director of ACUHO-I. “In just two years we have become the place for student affairs job placement. This partnership with HigherEdJobs.com will only strengthen those services we are able to deliver and broaden our reach.”

“This partnership is a natural alliance between two established leaders in the higher education career services and placement arena; The Placement Exchange, the definitive live and online resource for jobs in student affairs, and HigherEdJobs.com, the leader in online job posting throughout higher education,” said Kevin Kruger, associate executive director of NASPA. “Student affairs professionals will see immediate benefits from this emerging partnership.”

“Our mission is to give higher education candidates everything they need for their career,” said John Ikenberry, president of HigherEdJobs.com. By joining forces with NASPA, ACUHO-I and their partner associations, we feel we can do an even better job of helping candidates in this area.”

Andrew Hibel, chief operating officer of HigherEdJobs.com, added “Like HigherEdJobs.com, we feel The Placement Exchange is a very cost-effective and collegial way for employers and candidates to meet in student affairs. We feel like it fits well with our mission.”
