

ACUHO-I Foundation Conference Series New Delegate Award Reimbursement

Information and Eligibility

The ACUHO-I Foundation and the conference committees are proud to announce the availability of New Delegate Award Reimbursement for 2010. Three award reimbursements, of $500 each, will be awarded to one delegate from each of the conferences.

The objectives for these award reimbursements are:

- To involve individuals new to the ACUHO-I sponsored conference
- To help delegates connect with other professionals
- To facilitate mentoring
- To provide access to new knowledge

Criteria for Eligibility:

1. Must be a first-time attendee of the affiliated conference: Business Operations, ACUHO-I/APPA Housing Facilities, or Living-Learning Programs.
2. Must be a graduate student or a professional staff member at an ACUHO-I member institution, or have sponsorship from a member institution.
3. Worked three years or less in the profession.
4. Provide a letter of support from your supervisor indicating his/her willingness to fund any conference expenses not covered by this award reimbursement, and verifying that the information in your application is correct.

Interested applicants should complete the following application form.

Applications and Letters of support must arrive at the central office by September 1, 2010 to:
