

Part-Time Student Designer

Deadline to apply: March 1, 2010

The Association of College & University Housing Officers – International (ACUHO-I) is looking for a part-time student designer to work in our offices to create and produce collateral that promotes the association and delivers information to our members.

Candidates for this position will be proficient with the Adobe Creative Suite software in a Macintosh environment. Work will be primarily in the print medium (brochures, mailings, conference programs, etc.) but familiarly with producing materials for Web sites, Flash, and HTML will be taken into account when reviewing applicants.

This is a paid position. Students will work 15-20 hours a week with opportunities for additional hours during peak production times. ACUHO-I operates as a division of the student affairs department at Ohio State. Our offices are located at the corner of Kenny and Ackerman Roads and are available via the Ohio State bus route.

Interested candidates should electronically submit a resume, letter, and samples of their work to James Baumann, Director of Communications & Marketing, at james@acuho-i.org.
